JENNIFER'S TOP 5

1 STEADY

Let's make the most of our time.

Jennifer needs situations and people to line up in predictable ways, which allows them to be as productive as possible. They treasure an even and consistent life where changes happen on their terms. They ensure that their day runs smoothly, by putting their plans and daily routines in order.

2 UNIQUE

I'm comfortable in my own skin.

Jennifer does not follow the crowd, but instead, marches to a different drummer. Their Unique way of doing things protects them from boredom. The goal of their Uniqueness is to keep from being conventional, predictable or typical. They are motivated to see things from their own perspective.

3 ECONOMICAL

I need to get the best value.

Being Economical allows Jennifer to conserve their financial resources effectively. They want to save money wherever possible and know where every nickel is spent to guard against wastefulness. They have a talent for doing what is thrifty so you can be assured that your money is spent wisely.

4 CURIOUS

I'm looking for possibilities.

It is very much like Jennifer to always want to know what is unknown. What's in that box? Who just drove up? Life seems like a continuous quest for information. They like the process of exploring and finding out "why." To you, life is a gigantic mystery that needs to be solved.

5 INDEPENDENT

I'm very capable.

Jennifer's Independence allows them to keep their distance from people who are too needy. Being Independent also enables them to detach themselves from those who might prove to be emotionally painful and troublesome. They enjoys being self-sufficient and competent in all that they do.
